

The Marketplace for Financial Risk and Regulatory/Compliance Jobs

GlobalRiskJobs is a niche job board featuring high profile jobs in risk management and regulatory compliance. Our mission is to connect qualified employers to skilled people in market, credit, operational and enterprise risk, quantitative finance, risk technology and financial compliance. Managed by professionals focused on risk recruiting since 2001, GlobalRiskJobs offers unparalleled access to highly qualified candidates who meet your job criteria.

BENEFITS OF GLOBALRISKJOBS

- Qualified Risk Professionals: As a niche job board, we attract qualified risk and compliance professionals, making job applicants better suited to your job descriptions than those from general job boards. More suitable candidates make your resume review process more efficient.
- Expertise from Experienced Recruiters: When you post a job on GlobalRiskJobs, you have engaged an experienced team to get the most exposure and best resumes for your job. At pricing that is lower than general job boards and competitive to niche sites, we offer service beyond comparison.
- Your Jobs at the Top of Search Engine Results: Powered by JobMount job board software's advanced SEO (search engine optimization), GlobalRiskJobs assures that internet users will also find the jobs you post on GlobalRiskJobs at the top of Google and other major search engine results.

SITE STATISTICS

- Active Job Seekers: Nearing 3,000 registered risk professionals with 50% growth since July 2008.
- Resumes: Over 2,500 resumes available for review in our database, with access to an additional pool of 35,000 risk professionals through affiliates.
- Growing Traffic: 15,000 visits/month, increasing every month. 75% through search engines, and 25% through direct access or referrals from our affiliates.
- Global Exposure: Traffic from Americas (62%), Europe (18%), Asia/Pacific (18%), Africa/Other (2%)

Global

GlobalRiskJobs' job postings mirror today's global marketplace, allowing employers with operations in many countries and time zones to post jobs globally and attract talent locally.

Risk

GlobalRiskJobs is designed to address the nuances of risk and compliance through advanced search capabilities. Employers may target candidates with specific risk specialties, while candidates may tailor email alerts when certain job opportunities arise.

Jobs

In today's economy, the supply and demand for risk management executives is greater than ever. We estimate that there are 25,000 open risk and compliance jobs each year, and GlobalRiskJobs' job inventory is always expanding to meet this need.
